

Abby Malakoff is a student in English at the University of Massachusetts, Amherst. She has completed a certificate in Technical Writing and Professional Communication. Abby has also completed a minor in Business at the Isenberg School of Management.

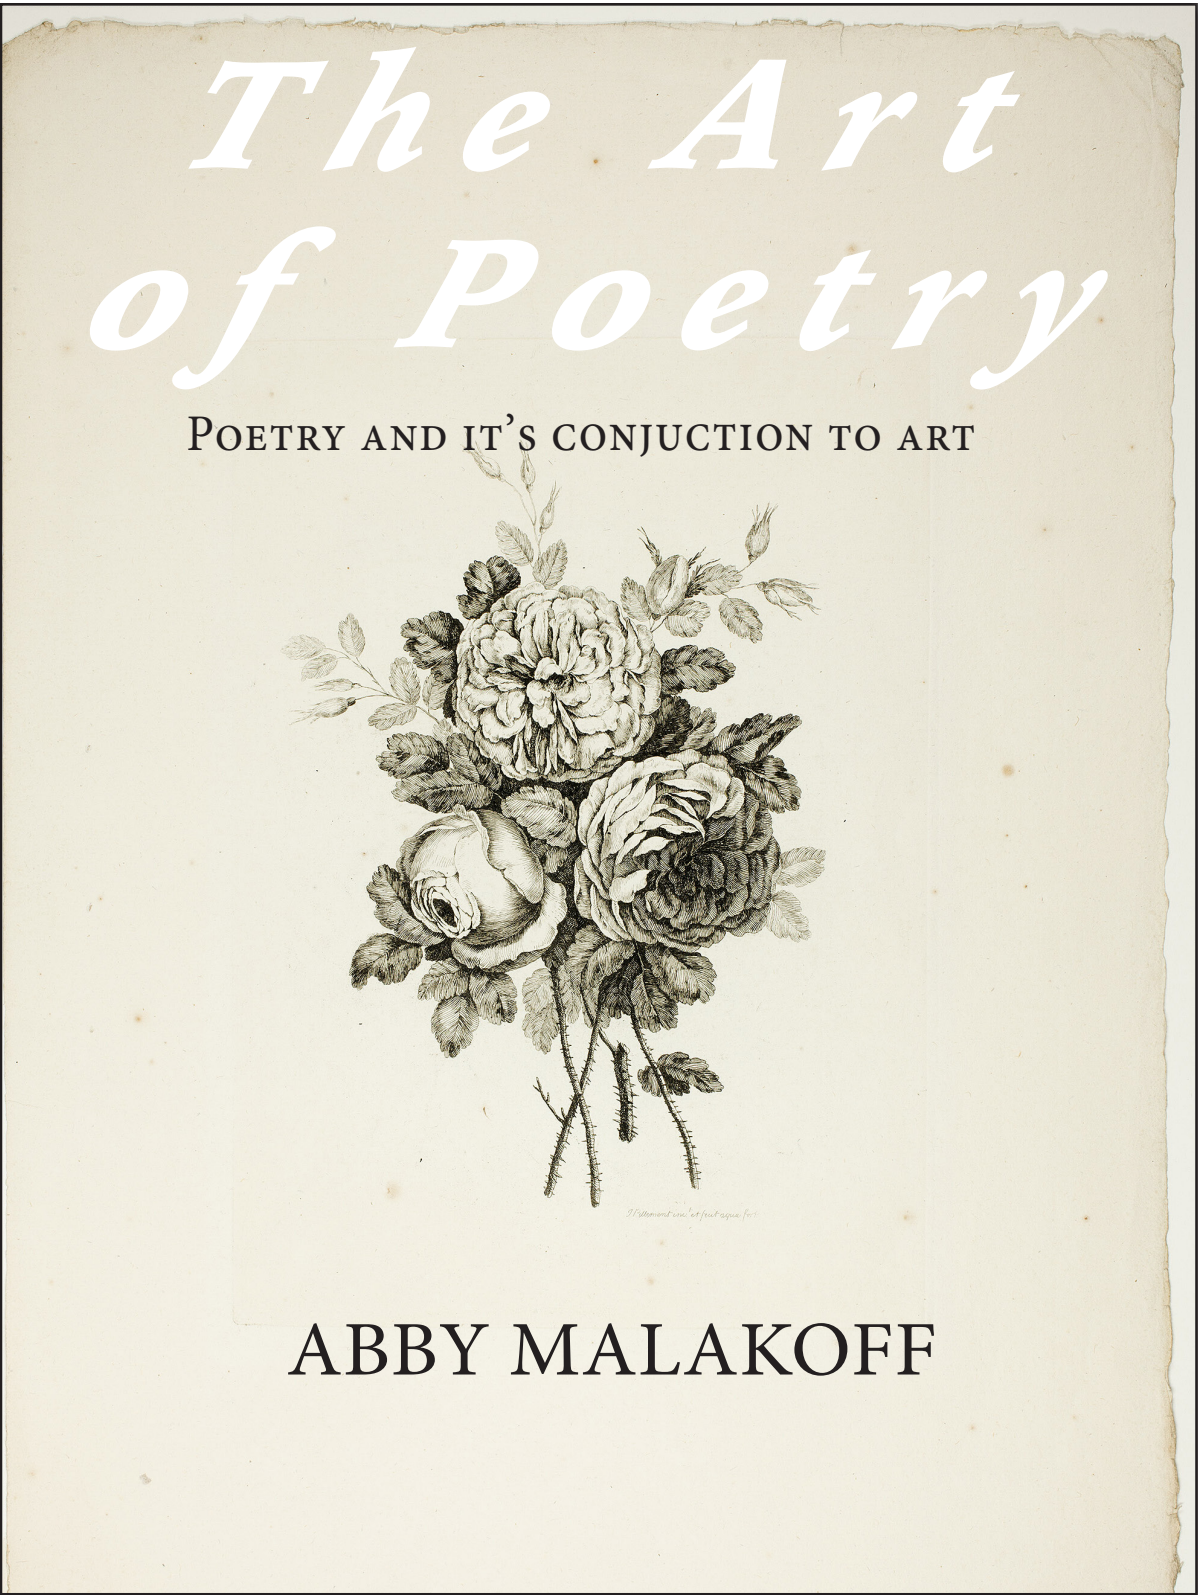

Abby has studied and written an immense amount of poetry throughout her life, especially in her college career, where she wrote most of the poems in this chapbook.

Abby
Malakoff

The Art of Poetry

382 PRESS

U.S.A $29.95
Canada $35.00

Description

“You can not put a band-aid on a bruise within but you can remember all the lost roads”

The Art of Poetry is a compilation of poems and pieces of art alongside writing to show the beauty of each, interconnected.

The process of healing through lifes misfortunes with poetry and art

A journey of personal self discovery by the way of combining artwork and poetry, making each piece of writing come to life